

A100

SCA INTRODUCTION TO LIVING & WORKING IN THE STRATA COMMUNITY

This comprehensive Strata Community Management course provides a practical overview for new managers and support staff and it is an essential review for experienced managers.

As a participant you will have access to a 400-page online manual that is filled with many sample forms and time-saving tips for working with homeowners, managers, committees, sub committees and other industry professionals. Successful completion of this course is the first step in obtaining a professional industry accreditation with the A100 a prerequisite for entering the SCA professional accreditation pathway.
